

“Howl-O-Ween” Dog Costume Contest

October 29, 2016

2:00 pm

Anyone who gets a kick out of dressing up their “fur-babies” will surely take pleasure in participating in this year’s “Howl-O-Ween” Dog Costume Contest. Our goal is to raise awareness of animal abuse and at the same time, raise a few dollars for injured and neglected animals in our county. Just so you’ll know, 100% of all the monies we collect from entry fees (less the cost of prize awards) go directly to the Bladen County Animal Control for their use in providing care and relocation for many of our county’s injured neglected and abused animals.

Award trophies and a special “doggy” prize will be given to the first 3 places as ranked by our independent judges, based on a point scale of 0 to 5 per category:

- 1) Costume (creativity, uniqueness)
- 2) Temperament (sociability, leash walking, obeying simple commands: sit, lay, stay)
- 3) Talent (other than obeying simple commands)

Entry forms are available at <http://boosttheboroinc.godaddysites.com/>

Hard copy paper forms will also be available on the day of the contest. You may pick one up at the Pet Costume Contest Registration Table, but please allow yourself enough time to fill out the form, prior to the 2:00 PM event.

Early Registration fee is $20 and must be received by end of day on Thursday, October 27, 2016.

Complete your registration and make checks payable to:

Boost the Boro, Inc.
PO Box 771
Bladenboro, NC 28320

However, you may still register on the day of the Festival (up to 1:00 pm), but the fee will be $30 per application.

Please see next page for registration and a few requirements for entering your pet
